The New Community School empowers bright, talented students in grades 5-12, who are challenged by dyslexia and related language-based learning differences. The innovative and research-based college preparatory curriculum utilizes a customized educational approach to build skills in language and math and to foster academic and personal strengths and igniting the passions and gifts of unique minds.

The New Community School is currently hiring an Upper School Physical Science Teacher.

This teacher will teach small classes of students in a supportive, professional environment.

Job Description: The teacher will:

- Teach small classes (6-8 students/class) a structured sequence of science concepts using varied instructional strategies.
- Contribute to the rich Upper School student life program.
- Serve as the faculty advisor to a small group of students.
- Facilitate ongoing communication with parents regarding student progress, including formal written reports in accordance with the school calendar.
- Participate in the school's extensive pre-service/in-service training and mentoring program.
- Perform other supervisory duties (i.e., athletic coaching) as assigned.

Requirements: The ideal candidate must possess:

- A strong interest in learning differences and how they can affect the acquisition of science concepts.
- A bachelor's degree, Virginia state licensure, and two years' teaching experience.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- A desire and willingness to grow professionally and work as part of a team.

Salary Information
Salary is commensurate with experience.

To Apply: Send resume and letter of interest to Personnel, The New Community School, 4211 Hermitage Rd., Richmond, VA 23227, or email employment@tncs.org.