

Gage Gunderson's Reader's Rave

Among the Imposters

I read a book called Among the Imposters written by Margaret Peterson Haddix. The best words to describe this book is heart pounding mystery. It stands out from other books because it's just a weird world that it seems not like other worlds. The book is about a boy who is a third child, and in the world you are not allowed to have 3 kids. So he is sent to a boarding school, and he hates it because he has a fake name, no I.D., and he gets picked on a lot. But then he finds out the secrets about his school. Some of the highlights of the story are: he found out that some kids were like him and then he got more suspicious. What I won't tell you is who the bad guy is! I think you would enjoy this book because if you like a good mystery, then you will love this book.

By: Gage Gunderson Grade 7th

Have you read any good books lately?